

Indispensable health care resource to the communities we serve...

Integrated Community Health Partners, LLC (ICHP) is a collaborative care organization that blends the best attributes of local, regional and national organizations in order to better serve Health First Colorado Members in the communities in which they live. ICHP serves Health First Colorado Members in 19 counties in Southern Colorado, comprised of urban, rural and frontier communities, focusing on integrated community healthcare.

ICHP is comprised of a partnership between nine (9) different organizations with complimentary abilities, which allows our system to blend the knowledge of longstanding, time-tested agencies with the entrepreneurship and creativity of new enterprises. The primary partnership includes; Beacon Health Options, Colorado Community Managed Care Network (CCMCN), four community behavioral health provider organizations, and three federally qualified community health centers. Collectively, ICHP Partners have provided services to First Health Colorado Members for over three decades. Our provider partners average 40+ years serving the citizens of Colorado.

Our collaborative care partners include:

- Beacon Health Options
- Colorado Community Managed Care Network
- Behavioral Health Organizations

The CCMCN include these medical care provider partners:

- High Plains Community Health Center
- Pueblo Community Health Center
- Valley-Wide Health Systems

The behavioral health provider organizations include:

- San Luis Valley Community Mental Health Center
